Thank You

We would like to thank everyone for joining us on this very special day as we begin our new life together. The Lord has blessed us greatly, not only with the gift of each other, but also with our incredible parents, family, and friends.

To our parents, without your love, sacrifice, and prayer, we would not be here today. To our family, your support and generosity have reflected the love of the Holy Family and have impacted us greatly. To our friends, we are so thankful for you and the countless memories created in growing closer to God with you. We can't wait to celebrate the great gift of receiving the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony with you all today!

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O good Jesus, hear me. Within Thy wounds, hide me. Separated from Thee let me never be.
From the malignant enemy, defend me. At the hour of death, call me.

eternity. Amen.

Catholic Belief Regarding Marriage

“Just as of old God encountered his people with a covenant of love and fidelity so our Savior, the spouse of the Church, now encounters Christian spouses through the sacrament of Matrimony. ” Christ dwells with them, gives them the strength to take up their crosses and so follow him, to rise again after they have fallen, to forgive one another, to bear one another’s burdens, to “be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ,” and to love one another with supernatural, tender, and fruitful love, In the joys of their love and family life he gives them here on earth a foretaste of the wedding feast of the lamb.”

Communion

Celebrant: Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

R: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

As Catholics, receiving Holy Communion means that we believe in and orient our life toward Jesus and all He has revealed through the Catholic Church. Upon receiving Communion, baptized Catholics acknowledge that the consecrated bread and wine are truly His Body and Blood. If you are not Catholic, or if you're a Catholic who is unable to receive communion due to mortal sin since your last confession, we invite you to cross your arms as you come forward in the communion line to receive a blessing from the priest.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you

R: And with your spirit

You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading - (Tobit 8:4b-8)

Nicki Voisard

On their wedding night Tobiah arose from bed and said to his wife, "Sister, get up. Let us pray and beg our Lord to have mercy on us and to grant us deliverance."

Sarah got up and they started to pray and beg that deliverance be theirs.

They began with these words:

"Blessed are you, O God of our fathers; praised be your name forever and ever.

Let the heavens and all your creation praise you forever.

You made Adam and you gave him his wife Eve to be his help and support;

and from these two human race descended.

You said 'It is not good for the man to be alone; let us make him a partner like himself.'

Now, Lord, you know that I take this wife of mine not because of lust, but for a noble purpose.

Call down your mercy on me and on her,

and allows us to live together to a happy old age."

They said together, "Amen, amen."

Gospel (John 15:9-16)

Reverend Elijah Puthoff

As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.

The Rite of Marriage

In the Catholic Church, marriage is a Sacrament, which means that it is a visible sign of God's grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which Divine life is dispensed to us. This is what makes Catholic marriage so much more than a legal union, and why it must be like God's love for us free total, faithful, and fruitful. A marriage between two Christians should be a clear, visible sign of God's love for us. At the end of our lives, spouses should be able to look at each other and say, "I know God's love for me better because of you."

R: Lord hear our prayer

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

The Eucharist is the "source and summit" of the Catholic faith because it is Jesus Himself, wholly present in the body, blood, soul, and divinity under the appearance of bread and wine. Thus, the Liturgy of the Eucharist is the high point of the Mass.

Second Reading (Ephesians 5:2a, 21-33)

Isaac Marchal

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians, Brother and sisters:

Live in Love, as Christ loved us
and handed himself over for us,
Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ.
Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord.
For the husband is head of his wife
just as Christ is head of the Church,
he himself the savior of the body.
As the Church is subordinate to Christ,
so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything.
Husbands, love your wives,
even as Christ Loved the Church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her,
cleansing her by the bath of water with the word,
that he might present to himself the Church in splendor,
without spot or wrinkle or any such thing,
that she might be holy and without blemish.

So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies.

He who loves his wife loves himself.

For no one hates his own flesh
but rather nourishes and cherishes it,
even as Christ does the Church,
because we are members of his Body.

For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.

This is a great mystery,
but I speak in reference to Christ and the Church.
In any case, each one of you should love his wife as himself,
and the wife should respect her husband.
